INTERVIEWING

MAKE A GOOD IMPRESSION AND SECURE AN OFFER
BY FOLLOWING THESE FOUR STEPS

1 Research

Learn as much as possible about the organization or company:

- What is the mission, goal, or purpose of the organization?
- What kind of content do you see on its official website?
- Has the company been in the news recently?
- What projects or initiatives are they currently working on?
- How much do you know about the culture of the organization?
  How big is the organization? How many employees does it have?

Talk to anyone you know who works at the organization/company or check the Alumni Directory or LinkedIn to see if there are any alums working for the company you could speak with to learn more.

Common Interview Questions

While it is better to prepare for an interview by compiling your list of SPARs, here are some typical interview questions that you may be asked:

+ Tell me about yourself.
+ Why are you interested in working with our organization?
+ What is one of your greatest strengths?
+ What is one of your greatest weaknesses?

You can always use the career guides online or Google to find industry specific interview questions as well.

Questions to Ask the Employer

At the end of the interview, you will have the opportunity to ask the employer questions. Try to ask questions that genuinely interest you, but also display your knowledge of the organization.

+ What is the culture of the organization?
+ How do you see new staff contributing to the (initiative, project)?
+ What are your goals for this position in the first year?

Use this formula to brainstorm potential questions:

This is what I know + This is why I care + So tell me more about...

Example:

I read that your company is increasing its philanthropic contributions by 20 percent + I have always been passionate about fundraising for nonprofits + Can you tell me more about this new initiative?

To-Do List:

+ Bring a padfolio or notepad, extra copies of your resume, and a list of questions to ask the employer
+ Give yourself plenty of time to travel and arrive a few minutes early
+ Plan out your day ahead of time. Look up directions, parking, address, etc.
+ Have the office phone number on hand in case you need to contact them

Skill to Highlight: Problem Solving

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Situation</th>
<th>I was participating in a research project in the Cognition and Action Neuroimaging lab where we manage toddlers' interactions and behaviors.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Problem</td>
<td>One of the children got really sick during one of our sessions.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Action</td>
<td>I took initiative and went to our emergency contact information database to contact the child's parent.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Result</td>
<td>I was able to calm the child down without upsetting the other children and her father was really thankful for the way I handled the situation. He ensured us his daughter would be back to participate as soon as she was feeling better.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

This SPAR (Situation/Problem/Action/Result) relates to the following questions:

Tell me about a time you had to handle a difficult situation?
Describe a situation in which you worked as part of a team and what role you had within the team.
Give me an example of your problem-solving capabilities.

Get Ready

Below are some tips on wardrobe choices and general day-of-interview prep.

+ SUIT: Wear a two-piece matching suit in navy, dark gray, or black or wear a two-piece suit or skirt and blazer combo. Skirts should cover thighs when seated.

+ SHIRT: A long-sleeved, collared, button-down shirt or a blouse, knit sweater, or shell is appropriate.

+ SHOES & SOCKS: Match your belt to your shoes. Wear dark socks and professional business shoes, flats, or professional-looking heels (no higher than 2 inches).

+ NEVER WEAR: Shorts, cologne, sandals, t-shirts, miniskirts, low-cut blouses, leggings, large jewelry, or platform heels.

+ GROOMING: Always be clean shaven or have well-groomed facial hair. Makeup should be minimal and fingernail polish should be neutral in color. Clean fingernails are also important.
Thank-you Letters

+ Before you leave, write down names of interviewers and/or get business cards so you don’t misspell names
+ Send thank-you letters to each person who interviewed you within 24 to 48 hours of the interview (can be handwritten or sent via email)
+ Check for typos
+ Be sure to thank them for their time, restate interest/show enthusiasm, mention something you discussed with the interviewer(s)
