

ADVISER TRAINING SERIES: 2016-2017

The Career & Internship Center presents strategies, ideas, and career information tailored to the needs of UW's professional advising community. Join us for one event or many!

Exploring the Major to Career Connection

Thursday, November 3, 2016; 9:30-11:00am, HUB 334

What does the major to career connection look like from an employer's perspective? Join employers who hire UW alumni for a discussion around how students can leverage their academic majors for career success.

Career Exploration Tools and Websites: Quick Picks for Student Conversations

Wednesday, February 8, 2017; 9:30-11:00am, HUB 332

When you only have a few minutes with a student, what are the career exploration resources that will have the biggest effect in your work? Enhance your repertoire of career tools and websites in this workshop.

LinkedIn: Beyond the Profile

Tuesday, March 14, 2017; 9:30-11:00am, HUB 332

How can you leverage LinkedIn in daily advising work on career topics? Bring your laptop or tablet as we take a deep dive into LinkedIn features and tools to enhance your work with students.

What to Know about the Seattle Job Market in 2017

Thursday, April 27, 2017; 9:30-11:00am, HUB 332

Seattle's economy is booming, but how does that apply to UW students? We will review economic indicators, consult national and local sources, and examine just how UW students can prepare for the local economy, regardless of their major.

Registration information for each event will be sent out to advisers through the UW advising listserv approximately 4-5 weeks in advance of each date.

Questions? Please email Catherine Basl at cbasl@uw.edu