Jackson Laboratories

Website: https://www.jax.org/
Internship Page: Summer Student Program / Academic Year Internships

Academic Year: 2016 – 2017

Application Period:	Fall: May 1st-July 1st Spring: Sept 1st- Nov 1st Summer Student Program: Oct 17th-Feb 2nd
Application Process:	Submit an online application using the websites provided above.
Application Materials:	Résumé, Cover Letter, Writing Sample, (Unofficial) Transcript
Location:	The Jackson Laboratory for Genomic Medicine, Farmington, CT
Eligible class standings:	Freshman, Sophomore, Junior, Senior, (Graduates-from PSM program only)
Minimum GPA to participate:	3.00/4.00 (University rules require a minimum 2.00/4.00)
Credit:	Please see guidelines for earning academic credit for your internship here.
Compensation:	Unpaid for Fall and Spring; Paid for Summer Student Program
Hours:	~15-20 hours, will vary Must add to a total of 180 hours minimum.
For UConn Students Only:	No
Additional information:	Must visit the lab for an interview with the Education Department and a separate interview with the host lab. Also, must miss a day of class for onboarding if selected.

Description of internship provider:

The Jackson Laboratory is an independent nonprofit organization leveraging eight decades of expertise in genetics and genomics to increase understanding of human disease and discover precise genomic solutions.

Description of internship position:

For more information, see the internship pages provided above or for information on the Professional Science Master's Internships, contact melanie.sinche@jax.org.

For more information about internships with this organization, please contact:

Walter Nakonechny
Associate Director of Education
The Jackson Laboratory for Genomic Medicine
Farmington, CT
walter.nakonechny@jax.org