Description of Internship Provider:

The Daily Campus strives to provide the UConn community with fair, accurate, relevant and editorially independent content, to take on student interests as our own interests, and to provide the best possible environment for students to learn, experience and develop skills related to news media. It exists to provide a newspaper for the University of Connecticut and to provide students with the best possible environment to experience, first hand, all aspects of the newspaper industry.

Description of Internship Position:

The intern will be responsible for creating designs for advertisements and to accompany stories in the paper on a daily basis. Candidates should have experience with graphic design software (ideally Adobe InDesign), creative skills, and strong interpersonal communication skills. They should also have some involvement in the UConn community. The interns will improve their graphic design skills, their team and professional skills, and learn how to work in business-like environment. Finally, they will learn the inner workings of a newspaper.
