Description of internship provider:

The University of Connecticut Public Interest Research Group (UConnPIRG) is a nonprofit student activism and advocacy group dedicated to working in the public interest and bringing about social change. UConn PIRG works to teach students the organizing and activism skills they need to make a difference in the community. UConnPIRG works with a variety of issues that are current in the lives of students.

Description of internship position:

As an intern in the tactical coordination program, students will work with a specific issue under UConnPIRG. Each intern will focus on recruiting, training, and tracking a team of volunteers to hit campaign goals on the specific issue. Within the coordinators, specific students can apply for executive leadership opportunities in order to gain more responsibilities and leadership opportunities.
