Description of Internship Provider:

The Office of Fraternity and Sorority Life is dedicated to providing quality support services and educational experiences that enhance the holistic development of students as global citizens. OFSL sets an expectation of excellence that challenges the diverse fraternity and sorority community to exemplify the highest scholastic, social, and ethical standards.

Description of Internship Position:

This internship exposes students to careers in higher education and student affairs. Each intern will select a focus for the internship experience (Administration, Communications, Leadership, Operations, or Programming) that will be their primary responsibility. Additionally, interns will work on long term projects and gain experience with daily operations in an active and professional work environment. Interns will act as informal OFSL ambassadors throughout the UConn community. The ideal candidate will have the following qualifications:

- Interest and/or experience in at least some of the following: office operations, database management, educational program and resource development, marketing, event planning, public relations and/or communications, and community service and philanthropy
- Strong organizational, interpersonal and communication skills
- Professional demeanor and dress
- Self-sufficient and flexible
- Trustworthy and discrete, i.e. the ability to keep office matters confidential
- Experience with Microsoft Office programs
