Description of Internship Provider:

Nutmeg Publishing is a student run publishing club that visualizes and creates content for the Nutmeg Yearbook and Nutmeg Magazine. The Nutmeg Yearbook has been published since 1915. It features everything from student life and important events to individual portraits of the graduating seniors. The Nutmeg Magazine has been published since 2015. It is a free online magazine with articles on student life and UConn culture.

Description of Internship Position:

The Creative Director will develop style guides for the Nutmeg Yearbook and Nutmeg Magazine. This position is a mid-level leadership position, as the Creative Director acts as the head of the design team. Must attend a weekly 30 minute meeting with the design team, have the ability to meet quick submission deadlines, and work collaboratively to edit and finalize submitted spreads.
